george bell remains one of only a handful of twentieth century english bishops to possess a continuing international reputation for his involvement in political affairs his insistence that christian faith required active participation in public life at home and abroad established an eminent and often provocative contribution to christian ethics at large bell's participation in the tragic history of the german resistance against hitler has earned him an enduring place in the historiography of the third reich his february 1944 speech protesting against the obliteration bombing of germany made in the house of lords is still often considered one of the great prophetic speeches of the twentieth century throughout his long career bell became a leading light in the burgeoning ecumenical movement a supporter of refugees from dictatorships of all kinds a committed internationalist and a patron of the arts this book draws together the work of leading international historians and theologians including rowan williams and makes an important contribution to a range of ongoing political ecumenical and international debates the massive changes of christianity during the 20th century raise the perennial question about its identity in a new radical form the author addresses the question of identity and asks how globalisation religious pluralism and the polycentric nature of christianity affect christian self identification and theological reflection first religious life and theological reflection among believers in jesus from muslim and hindu background in south asia is presented in two empirical studies secondly the findings are analysed and interpreted within a broad theoretical framework drawing on models for syncretistic processes from history of religions cultural anthropology and christian theology finally the study concludes with a systematic theological perspective on the interreligious hermeneutics underlying the changes of christianity and discusses how interreligious hermeneutics might inform missiology as well as christian theologies of religions and how this might challenge our understanding of the church s nature and mission in conclusion it is argued that a global polycentric christianity can be interpreted as fellowship created by the spirit and centred on christ
